IARR DAILY CREW REPORT

Tampa Module #1

MORALE OF CREWS:

Good.

INJURIES:

None – GA-ST-02 crewmember has a sinus infection.

MESSAGE:

Follow-up - FL-ST-02 crewmember was transported to Grand Junction Airport by IARR(t) Hunter. Flight departed at 0613 and arrived in Tampa, FL at approximately 1345. Crewmember traveled from Tampa, FL to home unit.

A KIS-MA-01 crewmember was notified of a family emergency this morning. Crewboss Staples immediately facilitated an emergency demobilization for the crewmember. Crewmember was transported to the Grand Junction airport and departed for Alexandria International Airport at approximately 1040.

AL-MA-01 is doing well on the Hunter Peak Fire. They completed a very successful burnout operation on 08/15/16. IARR Berens noted the burnout operation contributed substantially to containment efforts. Today, the crew continued to patrol and mop-up firelines. AL-MA-01 may be demobilized in the next day or two – tentative demob date is 08/20/16.

SC-MA-01, KIS-MA-01 and FL-ST-02 were demobilized from their respective fires today. They were all reassigned to Guernsey, WY to stage at Camp Guernsey. SC-MA-04 and KIS-MA-01 traveled to Denver, CO and Dillion, CO, respectively, to overnight. They will both travel on to Guernsey, WY tomorrow morning with an ETA of 1100. FL-ST-02 will complete the demob process in Rifle, CO tomorrow morning before proceeding on to Guernsey; ETA – 1400.

IARR(t) Hunter traveled to Parachute, CO after departing Grand Junction, CO. He later traveled to Rifle, CO to meet with FL-ST-02 and attend the UCR Interagency 1100 briefing. Afterwards, he picked up a medical prescription for a GA-ST-02 crewmember before traveling to the Happy Hollow Fire to tie in with GA-ST-02, PR-MA-04 and FL-ST-03. Crews are still spiked out. Local personnel were starting to set up a small camp near the helispot (southeast of the fire). The Happy Hollow Fire appears to be winding down and transitioning to local resources. Therefore, crews may be demobilized in the next day or two.

B. Loth traveled to Rifle, CO to provide micropurchaser support. She will travel to Craig, CO tomorrow to provide support for crews assigned to the Happy Hollow Fire. Note: B. Loth is awaiting a correction to her resource order – it still shows her assigned to the Hunter Peak Fire.

J. Lowe is staged in Steamboat Springs, CO to provide micropurchaser support to crews assigned to the Happy Hollow Fire.
